What's So Amazing About Grace?

What's so amazing about grace? However many times we sing "Amazing Grace, How Sweet the Sound" grace is difficult to grasp.

What makes grace so hard to grasp is that it's unearned. Unmerited. We don't do anything to receive it. We can't get it by keeping score of what good Christians we are. Grace is not rewarded for church attendance or membership. Grace is not a bargaining chip, nor is it a golden ticket. Grace is not for some people and withheld from others.

Grace is like rain. It falls on the just and the unjust. Grace is a gift from God, and is for God to dispense to whomever, and however God decides. Grace is God's love poured out from heaven. It's a free gift from God. We can do nothing to earn grace. Grace is God's generosity. Grace is mercy. Grace is patience. Grace is forgiveness. Grace is the promise of God's eternal Presence. Grace is surprising, especially when we expect condemnation.

Grace may be free but is ours through the work of Jesus Christ on the cross on our behalf. So while grace is free, it's not cheap. This gift, this priceless, amazing grace, is a wonder to be appreciated. Amazing grace indeed.
